

EMPLOYEE ONBOARDING HANDBOOK

About Swaniti

Swaniti is a decade-old organization working for reform in policy making and public service delivery mechanisms. Since 2012, Swaniti has worked with Parliamentarians, District Administration, Governments of States, Union Government, and Foundations to strengthen policy making and public service delivery mechanism across the country policy-making.

12+ million Lives
Impacted

100+ million USD
in Government
Funds Mobilized

90+ Projects
Executed

18 Working States

1000+ Policy
Inputs Accepted

Onboarding Information

Employee Accounts

Upon joining the organization, each employee will be provided with the following:

- Official Email ID: To be used for formal communication, documentation, and file access
- Keka Account: HRMS platform to be used for marking attendance, managing leaves, and accessing employees information.
- Slack Account: Platform to be utilized for formal communication among team members and team leads.
- Trello/Monday: Project management tool designed to facilitate organization and prioritization of tasks

Probation

Probation period lasts for 3 months or as specified in letter of engagement

During the probation period:

- Employee's performance will be continuously monitored by the reporting manager
- Employees are entitled to a maximum of 3 days of leave. In case additional leave is required, they must apply for unpaid leave
- Either party may terminate employment by providing one month's notice or one month's salary
- Under exceptional circumstances, probation period may be extended by a maximum of 3 months.

Onboarding Information

Working Hours

9 A.M. - 6 P.M. (Monday -Friday)

- Employees are expected to work an average of 9 hours a day with additional hours depending on the engagement.
- Those employed at Swaniti's Delhi office are required to record their attendance using the biometric system. All other employees (state teams) are required to mark their attendance on Keka
- Punching in after 9:45 a.m. will result in automatic marking of a half-day leave or a salary deduction
- Employees seeking an adjustment to their working hours are required to submit a request to the Talent Management Team

Leave

Swaniti follows a calendar year from 1 Jan – 31 Dec

- Paid leave accrues at a rate of 1.5 days/per month for employees and consultants, beginning from the date of joining
- Employees who have completed 1 year of service with Swaniti will be able to apply for leaves exceeding their accrued balance. The balance will go negative and will be adjusted with the accrued leaves in subsequent months
- Employees are entitled to a maximum of 8 days of sick leave. They may avail of one-day's sick leave without submitting a medical certificate a maximum of 2 times in a month.
- A maximum of 4 paid leaves can be carried forward to the next year.

Onboarding Information

Health Insurance Policy

Annual entitlement of sum insured shall be as per company policy at the time

- Medical insurance coverage of up to Rs. 5,00,000 (Five Lakhs) is provided to employees and consultants
- A minimum hospitalization period of 24 hours is required for a claim to be made
- The policy document has been uploaded on Keka for easy access. Additionally, all employees and consultants will receive a Health Card within one month of their date of joining.

Grievance Redressal

Swaniti encourages employees and consultants any to disclose any violation of the Code of Conduct

- Such disclosures should only be regarding matters concerning the organization or the employee and not be related to any personal enmity or rivalry or any issues concerning grievances arising out of employment terms and conditions
- Swaniti will be responsible for keeping the identity of the complainant confidential during the entire process of the investigation and will ensure that no external or internal pressure is created after reporting any disclosures as well as arranging legal advice and financial support for legal actions and investigations.
- An Internal Committee (IC), which conducts regular review meetings, is constituted for complaints of Sexual Harassment.
- For grievances involving any staff or persons associated with Swaniti, employees are requested to reach out to the People's Team at hr@swaniti.in.

Offboarding Information

Resignation & Notice Period

Employment with Swaniti may conclude voluntarily or involuntarily at any time

- Employees and consultants must apply for resignation through the KEKA exit portal by following these steps.
- Upon acceptance, they are required to complete an exit survey as well as an exit interview with the Talent Management Team within their final 2 weeks of employment
- The notice period, as per the appointment letter, must be served from the date of resignation acceptance
- Following approval, relevant exit procedures will be carried out on the relieving day, and no leave is permitted during this notice period.

End of Engagement Guidelines

Upon the end of their engagement with Swaniti, employees and consultants are expected to:

- Fulfill their work duties until the last scheduled day of employment
- Submit all required reports and paperwork by the deadline, no later than the final workday
- Return all Swaniti property, including files, documents, equipment, keys, access cards, software, and any other items in their possession. Additionally, employees/consultants must provide all passwords to their supervisors
- In instances of gross misbehavior, the end of engagement may transpire without a notice period, and Swaniti holds no obligation to provide salary in lieu of the notice period

Offboarding Information

F&F Settlement & Experience Certificate

Employment with Swaniti may conclude voluntarily or involuntarily at any time

- Post-approval and upon exit, employees/consultants will receive a "No Dues" certificate. By signing this certificate, they will receive their full and final settlement within the next two pay cycles
- An experience letter will be provided within two weeks of the full and final settlement. Should employees/consultants fail to receive any of these documents within the prescribed timeframes, they are encouraged to address their concerns to hr@swaniti.in
- For tenures less than six months, employees may request a formal acknowledgment of their employment duration and responsibilities by emailing hr@swaniti.in. For tenures exceeding six months, employees become eligible for an experience certificate

Termination of Employment

Swaniti reserves the right to terminate employment based on non-performance, under-performance or misconduct

In cases of non-performance or under-performance:

- Typically, an oral warning during the review, followed by a one-month watch period, precedes termination
- Employees/Consultants may be placed on a "Performance Improvement Plan" by their department head, requiring completion of a mutually agreed assignment within one month. Failure to meet this deadline may result in termination with either a 30-day notice period or one month's salary in lieu of notice