

Travel Reimbursement Policy

The following is the reimbursement policy for the expenses incurred during required local/outstation travel. In case of any exception to this policy, approval must be taken from your reporting manager.

Purpose & Scope

All travel expenses must be ordinary, reasonable, and necessary, and must have a valid business purpose. This policy covers business travel expenses. Swaniti Initiative (“Organization”) expects its consultants/employees (“Individuals”) to use good judgment while expanding and claiming reimbursement from the Organization. Individuals should always keep track of his/her exact expenditures. Complete explanations and documentation must be present on expense reports to meet audit requirements. Receipts should be submitted when required. The final discretion to approve an expense as valid and therefore eligible for reimbursement lies with the organization.

Travel Category

1. Local Travel

Delhi Office

- For local conveyance, a car/cab should ideally be booked with documented permission granted by the reporting manager. In case of urgent meetings, permission should be taken and documented at the earliest time before said meeting. Conveyance bookings may be done on applicable cab services and the maximum amount that can be reimbursed is ₹500 (including to and fro) upon providing receipts of conveyance fare.
- If two or more Individuals are going to the same location using the same mode of transportation, only one of the Individuals is entitled to claim the travel expense.
- A list of platforms that qualify for reimbursement is provided below (non-exhaustive; more to be added based on feedback):
 - Uber
 - Ola
 - Rapido
 - BluSmart
 - InDrive

Other location / Field locations

- All travel within field locations must be informed to the reporting manager prior to heading into the field.

- In case of an Individual using personal vehicles for travel, the petrol bills will be reimbursed based on kilometers traveled. Local travel will be reimbursed at Rs.5 per kilometer plus parking charges (if any with a receipt). The Individuals will be required to submit the reimbursement on Keka.
- For local travel (to communities and villages) where travel is a part of the project, the upper cap for Auto in one day will be Rs. 300. Reimbursement may be claimed on Keka and no receipts are required for fares up to the upper cap amount. Reimbursement claims will then be taken up at the discretion of the reporting manager before being transferred to the finance team.
- In case of booking cabs or cars for long distance (more than 3 hours) travel, it should not be a bigger car than a sedan or hatchback.
- If a Local Travel involves an overnight stay by the Individual, it will be automatically deemed as an Outstation Travel. And therefore, the Outstation Travel policy will apply.

2. Outstation Travel

- For a road journey of not more than 6 hours for one side, the designated travel medium will be train or Bus.
- When traveling by train, an individual can book AC II fare. If AC II is not available, you can book AC III.
- If the train trip is more than 6 hours one-way, the Individual will be eligible to travel by air. Check the costs and suggest the most cost-effective and convenient flight ranges to the vendor.
- In case of outstation travel, local transportation within the city will be reimbursed on actuals.

3. Lodging / Accommodation

- Hotel/motel expenses will be reimbursed based on actuals. Invoices must be included with your expense report. The minimum corporate rate for single rooms should be requested at all hotels and motels.
 - Major Metropolitan cities - (₹4000 - 5000) - Delhi, Mumbai, Bangalore, Kolkata, Hyderabad, Chennai, Ahmedabad, Pune
 - Tier I cities - (₹3000 - 4500) - Agra, Aligarh, Bhopal, Bhubaneswar, Chandigarh, Dehradun, Dhanbad, Durg, Faridabad, Ghaziabad, Gorakhpur, Gurgaon, Guwahati, Gwalior, Hubli-Dharwad, Jaipur, Jamshedpur, Jodhpur, Kanpur, Lucknow, Noida, Patna, Raipur, Ranchi, Siliguri, Agartala, Itanagar, Darjeeling etc.
 - Other Districts - (₹2000 - 3000) - All other districts in India.

- The Individuals have to mention the budget range of the hotels to the vendors while booking the stay.

4. Per - Diem / Meal allowance

- A daily amount to cover food and meal expenses is also provided for outstation travel. The maximum Per Diem allowance is Rs. 1,000 per person per day for major Metro and Big cities and Rs. 500 per person per day for other districts/cities. Actual receipts are mandatory to claim this allowance.
- In the case when food is covered in bookings (hotel and flights), no further claims can be made for the same.

Things which is not applicable for reimbursement

- Unapproved Upgrade- Any upgrades to travel tickets, accommodation, or other services that are not approved in advance by the appropriate authority are not reimbursable.
- Meals Beyond Per Diem- If an Individual's meal expenses exceed the specified per diem limit for a particular meal, the excess amount will not be reimbursed.
- Expenses Without Valid Receipts- Reimbursement claims without valid receipts or proper documentation will not be processed.
- Transportation Penalties- Penalties incurred due to ticket changes, cancellations, or missed flights resulting from an Individual's negligence are not covered under reimbursement.
- Personal Expenses- Expenses of personal services, such as laundry, etc are not eligible for reimbursement.
- Travel to Office- The expense of daily to and from travel to the office does not qualify to be a reimbursable expense.

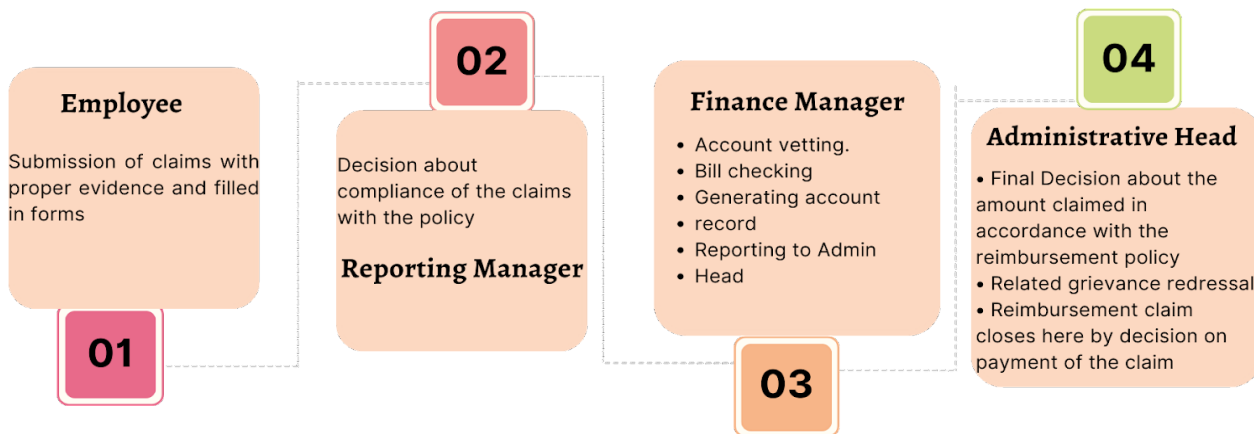

Additional Information

- All reimbursements must be submitted by the 25th of every month. The vetted amount will be disbursed in the following month (within 20 days). The reimbursement claims sent after the 25th will be processed in the next cycle.
- Individuals must provide sufficient evidence following the "adequate accounting rules" for travel, lodging, meals, or other expenses. All expenses must be substantiated with proper receipts; otherwise, no reimbursement claim will be processed unless it qualifies for a situation where a receipt is not normally provided.

- For expenses older than 60 days, the Individual has to raise a special request to the reporting manager for approval. The Finance Manager will review the claim for policy compliance and process it through the Administrative Head.

Standard Procedure

The standard procedure for a claim of reimbursement is as follows:

Responsibilities

- All Individuals - All Individuals seeking reimbursement of business-related expenses need to be familiar with the Organization's reimbursement policies located on the Administrative Policies, maintain required receipts, and provide a complete business purpose for the purchase/reimbursement. Individuals must submit expenses for reimbursement within the 25th of every month. Later submission will be processed in the following month.
- Manager - Managers are responsible for reviewing and approving the category of staff expense reimbursements. This review includes approving the purchase and the business purpose of the transaction. They will be responsible for tallying the bills and the claims.
- Accounts/Finance Manager- The Accounts / Finance Manager is responsible for reviewing and approving the work tags used on a reimbursement transaction. They are also responsible for ensuring the business complies with the requirements in the Business Purpose Policy and that receipts supporting the transaction are attached. The accounts manager must aspire to make it possible for the reimbursement transaction to be completed within 20 days of the highest authority's approval. In case of a grievance, the highest authority will try to close the grievance case with the final decision and the Accounts manager will ensure that the transaction gets completed within 10 days from the date on which the decision was taken.

- Administrative Head- The admin head is the final authority to make decisions on the amount of reimbursement and redress the grievances.

Approval Matrix for booking through our travel partner

- The Individual traveling will raise a request with the Travel Partner by email, marking a copy to the management, his/her manager/ head, and finance team, with the date, time, and traveler's details.
- Upon receiving the request, the travel partner shall share over the same email a list of flight/ train/ hotel/ cab options.
- On receiving the options, the Individual traveling shall take internal approval from the management and thereafter the management shall confirm to the Travel Partner, over email, one of the flight/ train/ hotel/ cab options and request to proceed with booking the same.
- Immediately upon receiving such confirmation from the management, the Travel Partner shall book the shortlisted options and share the booking details over the same email.
- In the first instance, Travel Partner would mandatorily require Swaniti's management approval before booking the ticket. After the 1st approval, if the prices of the tickets increase or decrease up to the amount of INR 500, the Travel Partner would directly book the same without seeking re-approval from Swaniti management.
- In case after 1st approval, the prices of tickets increase beyond INR 500, the Travel Partner will then be required to mandatorily seek Swaniti's management re-approval on the same without which the ticket would not be booked by the Travel Partner.

Grievance Redressal

- Any grievance regarding the reimbursement must be brought to the notice of the Finance Manager and Administrative Head immediately.
